

Student complaints procedure

The University welcomes feedback from its students. Whilst most of the feedback we receive is positive, we recognise that from time to time problems do arise and students may occasionally wish to express concern or dissatistion with aspects of the University or the services it provides. We aim to use the deadbackgathered from succomplaints positively to help us improve the services we offer and to enhance the Iniversity experience or all students

The following circumstances need to be distinguished, one from the other:

- x Student appeal: where a student is dissatisfied withformal process which has culminated in a decision, for example decisions by examination boards, the outcome of disciplinary procedures, of the investigation of examination offences. The University has in place appropriate internal procedures for appeals to be considered; information is given in student handbooks and the student by pages www.reading.ac.uk/internal/student/stdserv home.aspxor available from the RUSU advisers www.rusu.co.uk/advice/
- x Student complaint: where a student has a complaint against the Universitying to the delivery of teaching, support services, administration, facilities, or other aspects of the VWXGHQW¶VUHODWLRQVKLSZLWKWKH8QLYHUVLW\
